Section/Memory Verses: 1.2 — God is Loving / Romans 8:38-39

Conversation Starter: What is the most loving thing that anyone has done for you? Who did it and what did he or she do?

Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

You are on a journey of discipleship with your child. While that journey will look different over time, you can be confident that God and His Word will remain constant. Do you trust that God will lead you as you lead your child? As God proves Himself trustworthy to you each week, you have a responsibility to do your part. Commit to reading the Bible. Spend time in prayer. Surround yourself with other believers who can walk alongside you. You can trust that God is right there with you and your child on this amazing journey!

Lesson Summary

Do you want to know what your child learned this week? Read this lesson summary and reflect on what you think about this topic!

God loves us so much that He sent Jesus to die on the cross for our sins. When you accept Jesus as Savior, your relationship with God is restored and there is NOTHING that can separate you from God's love.

Conversation Starter

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

ROMANS 8:38-39

For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come.

Nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Section/Memory Verses: 1.3 — God is Faithful / Deuteronomy 7:9

Conversation Starter: Have you ever taken a trip in an airplane or been on a roller coaster that has taken you off the ground? How far up in the sky do you think you have been?

Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

The disciples sat at the feet of Jesus daily. As they listened and learned from Him, their understanding of God's love for them grew. But sitting at the feet of Jesus takes time. It is easy to get caught up in the busyness of life. Take a minute to think about your past week. Have you been intentional about sitting at the feet of your loving Heavenly Father? Has the craziness of obligations become the master of your time? There is no love that could compare to the unconditional love that God has for you. He wants you to stop, sit at His feet, and rest in His love.

Conversation Starter: Set a timer for one minute and count how many times you feel the beat of your child's pulse in that minute.

Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Waiting can be incredibly difficult! It can be easy to put God on a timetable. When waiting for God to do something, we sometimes get impatient and frustrated. But remember, God is never in a hurry and He is never late. God also knows exactly what we need and exactly when we need it. His patience causes Him to act in His perfect time, not ours. Where do you need to trust God's patient and perfect timing? When you are frustrated with God's seeming slowness to act, remember that He has promised to always do what is best according to His infinite wisdom and love.

Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Not all discipleship happens gathered around an open Bible in a quiet room while having deep theological discussions. Even though you may wish that your child would sit still, listen with rapt attention, and ask questions you are prepared to answer, that may not happen. More often than not, discipleship takes place in shorter conversations, amidst chaos and noise. In fact, Jesus often taught His disciples as they walked, fished, worked, or talked over a meal. What expectations do you need to release so that you can see more opportunities to have conversations with your child that are peppered with God's truth, love, and grace?

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Being a parent is an incredible privilege and responsibility. It brings moments of both great joy and great frustration, sometimes in the same day. Life is so hectic that it can be easy to go through the motions without intentionality. But parenting should be purposeful and an act of service to God; it isn't just a checklist that needs to get done. Be encouraged. What you do does not go unnoticed. God sees every sacrifice you make and the time you spend intentionally serving your family. Your child is looking to you as an example and is learning from you what it means to serve.

God's desire for us to grow never fades. Jesus demonstrated His commitment and patience with His disciples repeatedly. And He has that same commitment and patience for you and your spiritual journey. God has begun a good work in you, and He is faithful to bring that work to completion (Philippians 1:6). As believers, we don't need to dwell on guilt and the ways that we have failed God. We are redeemed and restored. We should press on in our journey to be more like Jesus (Philippians 3:12-14). Are you living your life in a place of forgiveness and restoration?

Conversation Starter: Tell your child what Jesus means to you.

Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Has your family fallen into familiar routines? Does your child see a pattern of discipleship in your family? Is the Holy Spirit leading all that your family does? There is comfort and familiarity in routine, especially in the middle of chaos. But sometimes routine can become boring, and repetition breeds a lack of intentionality and just going through the motions. At that point, we begin to depend on ourselves and not God. If your family's discipleship has grown stale, throw in something unexpected, like a different way to experience the Bible together, and let the Holy Spirit use the opportunity to grow your family!

Our society often equates love with how we feel about someone. But love is not just a feeling or emotion; love is often a choice we make to do something in spite of our feelings. In our humanness, loving others can be difficult. As you depend on God's perfect love, He will help you love others. In the Bible, Jesus showed patience with His disciples over and over again. Being patient with circumstances and people isn't always easy. We live in a chaotic world, and we desperately need God daily. Parenting, in particular, is filled with situations demanding our flexibility and patience. When things don't go the way you intended or you are frustrated with others, do you pray for a Christ-like patient attitude and ask the Holy Spirit to guide you? You will be asked: "What is your favorite dessert? Imagine it is sitting on a plate right in front of you. Would you eat all of it as fast as you could, or would you take time eating it and save some for later?"

 Memory Verse

Are you curious what your child is memorizing this week? See if you can memorize the verse(s) too!

1 TIMOTHY 6:11

But you, O man of God, flee these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, gentleness.

Lesson/Memory Verses: 4.7 — Discovery of Grace / Galatians 5:22-23

Conversation Starter: What is your favorite smell? Why do you like that smell the most? Does it remind you of anything specific?

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

There is no such thing as a perfect parent. Only Jesus is perfect. You will make mistakes along the way as you lead your child. That is a reality of being human and not God. However, how you react in those moments can make a difference in your child's spiritual journey. If we let it, our humanness can get in the way of what God wants us to do and who He wants us to be. But when we allow the Holy Spirit to control our lives, He can take our imperfections and mistakes and make something beautiful out of them.

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

Vanishing Verse — Using a dry erase marker, have your child write the verse on a mirror or window. Read the verse several times and then erase a couple of words. Read the verse again two or three times. Erase and repeat again until the verse is completely erased and the verse is memorized.

 Lesson Summary

Do you want to know what your child learned this week? Read this lesson summary and reflect on what you think about this topic!

The fruit of the Spirit comes from the Holy Spirit and is proof of a relationship with God and a love for God. Growing in grace means others will see the fruit of the Spirit in your actions, attitudes, and words.

 Conversation Starter

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

 Memory Verse

Are you curious what your child is memorizing this week? See if you can memorize the verse(s) too!

GALATIANS 5:22-23

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness.

Gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law.

Lesson/Memory Verses: 4.8 — Review / All Unit Four Verses

Conversation Starter: Tell your child about a time when God helped you have the fruit of the Spirit. What happened and how did God help you?

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

The fruit of the Spirit is present in our lives when we are abiding in Christ and are spiritually healthy. The attributes named in Galatians 5:22-23 are signs that God is doing a work in our lives. Think about what that would look like on a daily basis. Does your joy fluctuate depending on the craziness of life? Do you show peace and patience in spite of the good and difficult? Is your service filled with goodness and kindness? Spend time with God to grow in these things. Be honest when you fail, and ask for forgiveness from Him and from others. Your child sees your example of how you discover God's grace, and it will influence his or her spiritual growth too!

 Lesson Summary

Do you want to know what your child learned this week? Read this lesson summary and reflect on what you think about this topic!

The fruit of the Spirit is godly attitudes that show up in the lives of anyone who has accepted Jesus Christ as Savior. Over time, God will grow those attitudes in the life of every believer.

 Conversation Starter

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

Your child won't have a question in their handbook because this is a review week, but you can start a conversation by telling your child about a time when God helped you have the fruit of the Spirit. What happened and how did God help you?

GALATIANS 5:22-23

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Your child has just finished learning a great deal about God, the Bible, redemption, and ways to have an active faith. You have also been on a journey along with him or her, and it's time to celebrate what God is doing in your life. As you look back, what is the one insight that you want to take with you?

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

Review: Make It Stick — Help your child find the verses that they have learned in their Bible. Give him or her sticky notes to mark the verses, and read the verses directly from the Bible. Seeing that the verses are actually in the Bible and not just in a handbook is important. Reading the verses again will help solidify what has been memorized.
