Partnership with the International Mission Board (IMB) New Missionary Training

Mount Vernon is partnering with the IMB to assist in the training of newly appointed missionaries before they are sent to their assigned places of ministry. The new IMB missionaries & their families will travel to a nearby training center in Rockville for 7 weeks of intensive training in cross-cultural ministry.

This training helps new missionaries to be grounded in the Word of God, to learn how to share their faith, and to teach others how to grow in Christ and start churches. Training will also include how to live cross-culturally and how to stay safe in their places of ministry. Even the children will have special classes to help them prepare to live as third culture kids in a new country.

Mount Vernon can assist in this training by helping welcome the new missionaries, praying for them during the time of their training, coordinating with some of them doing evangelism activities near the church, and being a part of commissioning them as missionaries sent out by Southern Baptist churches when they finish their training.
