DR. KEVIN EZELL

President
North American Mission Board, SBC

Maximizing the Mission 1 Corinthians 16:7-9

NAMB mobilizes Southern Baptist churches for their next step in missions in North America. During his tenure, Kevin has led NAMB and Southern Baptists to plant more than 11,000 churches. At this rate, by 2030, one-third of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) will have been planted in the last 20 years. NAMB's 3 Circles tool is now in the hands of more than two million people, making it the most used evangelism resource in NAMB's history. Through Send Relief - the compassion ministry arm of the SBC - NAMB operates 20 ministry centers across the U.S. and Canada connecting people in need with people who care, all with the goal of leading people to a life in Christ. Prior to joining NAMB, Kevin served as the senior pastor of churches in Texas, Illinois and his native Kentucky. He is married to his wife Lynette, whom he met on the campus of their alma mater, Union University. They have six children and eight grandchildren. He is a so-so golfer and a big fan of Kentucky Wildcat basketball.
